Ok, so this is obviously tongue-in-cheek, and I don't necessarily think it's a good idea to listen to sad music about death and loss all the time. However, music, like writing and making art, can be used as a tool to create a safe griefspace by people who have nowhere else to turn. Sometimes you feel so bad that you need to listen to someone else's emotions, to feel validated, and to connect with your own sadness. These are songs that I and others have interpreted as relevant to grief and loss. If you have any songs to add, please email me!
